

A stylized logo consisting of four blue, curved, human-like figures arranged in a circle, holding hands. The figures are light blue with darker blue accents. Between the figures are four orange, trapezoidal shapes pointing towards the center.

CAIR Leadership Meeting

Service Subcommittee

Why Service?

- Problem:
 - Muslims are vilified in the media due to actions committed by a few, misrepresenting Islam.
- Solution:
 - Combat misinformation and misrepresentations with a proactive approach to dawah – Service in our communities – A Prophetic Tradition

Service in the Delaware Valley

- Day of Dignity – Islamic Relief
- Feed Philly

Partner Organizations

The background features a large, light blue circular graphic with a stylized, swirling pattern. Overlaid on this are several orange geometric shapes, including triangles and squares, arranged in a circular pattern around the center.

- Islamic Relief
- Feed Philly
- CAIR
- Mosques in Delaware Valley

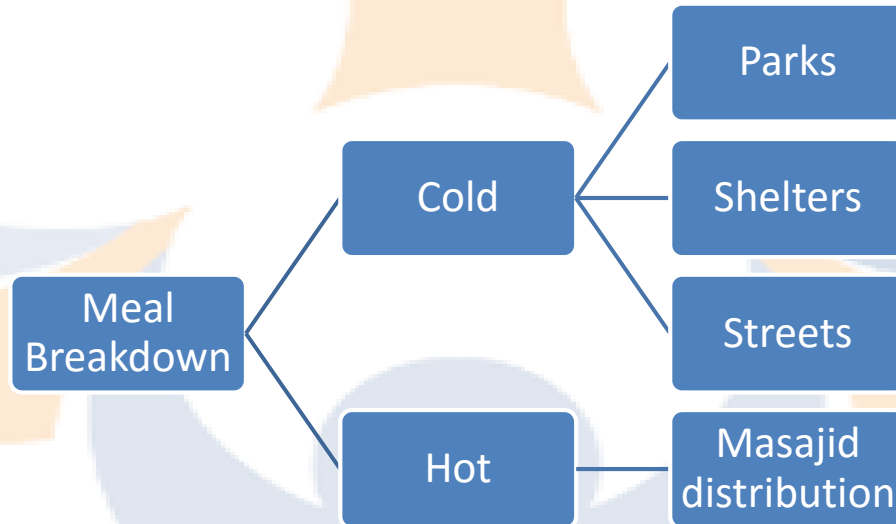

Day of Dignity – Islamic Relief

- 46 Million People Live in Poverty in the US (15% of the Population)
 - 16 Million Children
- Day of Dignity – An Opportunity to Serve Our Underprivileged Neighbors

Health Screenings / FeedPhilly

- Al-Shifa Clinic for Health Screenings
- Meal Distribution Throughout Philadelphia

Love Park – Day of Service – 6/13

- Location: JFK Plaza or Love Park for good visibility
- Time: 11 am to 2:00 pm
- Organized by: American Muslim for Hunger Relief/FeedPhilly
- Food: Sandwiches or hot meals to be provided
- Servings: 1000 people, since it is public place food is served to any one
- Cost: $ 1 to $ 3 per person. Estimated budget $ 3,000.00
- Sponsors: Asking each masjid to donate $ 200.00 to AMHF
- Volunteers: Asking for 10 volunteers to assist
- Banner: this will be provided. Cost and text to be decided
- Leaflets: to be prepared with text for distribution. The reason for this community service.

What Can Your Organization/Masjid Do?

- Re-invite organizations/masjids to participate in 6/13 Day of Service
- Initiate Your Own Service Events Throughout the Year
- Be Proactive!